

Not around on March 11th? You can still take part:-

- Food collection boxes will be at the White Lion and the Haywain from Monday 6th to Monday 13th March
- You can donate online at:-
thurrock.foodbank.org.uk

We'll let you how it goes!

We'll let you know what happens on the day and whether Fobbing reaches the 1000 target. (Fingers crossed!) We'll also highlight our star supporters, whether they are individuals, groups or businesses.

Saturday 11th March is 'Foodbank Challenge Day' in Fobbing

We are aiming to collect enough food to keep Thurrock Foodbank supplied for an average week - a 1000 items. All the donated food will go to Thurrock people in need.

One day – one thousand items

Please help us reach our target:-

- put non-perishable food items in the Foodbank boxes at the White Lion or the Haywain.
- or
- give non-perishable food items to the Foodbank volunteers who will be collecting in the village during the day. (You can leave food on your door step if you'll be out.)

We are especially in need of:-

Long life fruit juice	Tea bags (40s)
Long life whole milk	Tinned fruit
Tinned sweetcorn	Tinned potatoes
Tinned rice pudding	Tinned fish

(We have plenty of pasta and baked beans)
